

Ace Hardware Joins Uber Eats to Expand Local, On-Demand Delivery for Customers Nationwide

From spring gardening supplies to last-minute home repairs, customers can now shop Ace Hardware stores for on-demand delivery through Uber Eats

Uber Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: UBER) and Ace Hardware, the world's largest hardware cooperative, today announced a new partnership that will bring thousands of Ace Hardware locations across all 50 states to the Uber Eats platform. Together, Ace's neighborhood footprint and Uber's delivery technology make it even easier for consumers to shop for home improvement essentials with just a few taps. Live today, customers can shop their neighborhood Ace Hardware on the Uber Eats app for convenient on-demand or scheduled delivery.

"Ace is built on a network of locally-owned stores that are deeply rooted in the communities they serve, and partnering with Uber allows us to meet our customers wherever they are," said Bill Kiss, Head of Digital at Ace Hardware. "Whether they're tackling a last-minute project or planning ahead, our customers now have greater access to fast, flexible solutions for getting the products they need delivered right to their doorstep."

The partnership demonstrates Uber Eats' continued commitment to expanding selection beyond food delivery into everyday retail categories, including home improvement, beauty, electronics, and more. In 2025, Uber Eats welcomed more than a thousand new retailers around the world and more than 50,000 retail locations across the U.S. alone to its platform.

"Consumers are increasingly turning to Uber Eats for more than just meals. They rely on us for a variety of essentials, from paint supplies, to mulch for the garden, to the tools needed to kick off a weekend yard cleanup," said Hashim Amin, Head of Grocery and Retail for Uber in North America. "We're proud to welcome Ace Hardware's extensive network and loyal customers to our platform as we continue to expand the selection available to shoppers on Uber Eats."

About Uber

Uber's mission is to create opportunity through movement. We started in 2010 to solve a simple problem: how do you get access to a ride at the touch of a button? More than 72 billion trips later, we're building products to get people closer to where they want to be. By changing how people, food, and things move through cities, Uber is a platform that opens up the world to new possibilities.
